

Classy Looking Squad (College Lane Surgery)

The Prince of Wales Hospice It's a Knockout event is back!

The College Lane Surgery “Classy Looking Squad” team of doctors, nurses, receptionists and admin staff have entered and will have the opportunity to take on giant inflatables, obstacles, and plenty of foam at Pontefract racecourse on Sunday September 24th !

We would be grateful for as much support and sponsorship as possible and aim to raise at least £500 and possibly a lot more for this fantastic cause .

Sponsorship forms are available at reception or you can go online at pwh.org.uk and don't forget to gift aid your donation if possible.

THANK YOU

They care for local people within the ‘Five Towns’ community, offering round-the-clock care . They help nearly 1,000 local people of all ages each year. They don’t just treat patients with cancer either. They care for patients with a wide range of life-limiting illnesses with the majority of patients returning home after their symptoms have been managed.”
